

CONSTRUCTION ALERT

Date: June 3, 2017

What: Summer 2017 – Construction Fencing Changes

When: 07/05/2017 through 08/23/2017

Where: Santa Ana College – South of Building R

Activities:

Beginning July 5, 2017, access on the south side of Building R will be temporarily closed to accommodate the Summer Semester construction activities. The area will be under construction for an anticipated 6-7 weeks from 07/05/2017 through 08/23/2017. Access to the classrooms listed below will be affected during this time. Signage will be posted in the area to redirect students to the alternative routes and/or rooms.

R124 – Please use the door on the west side of Building R for access

R126 – All classes will be relocated

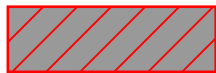

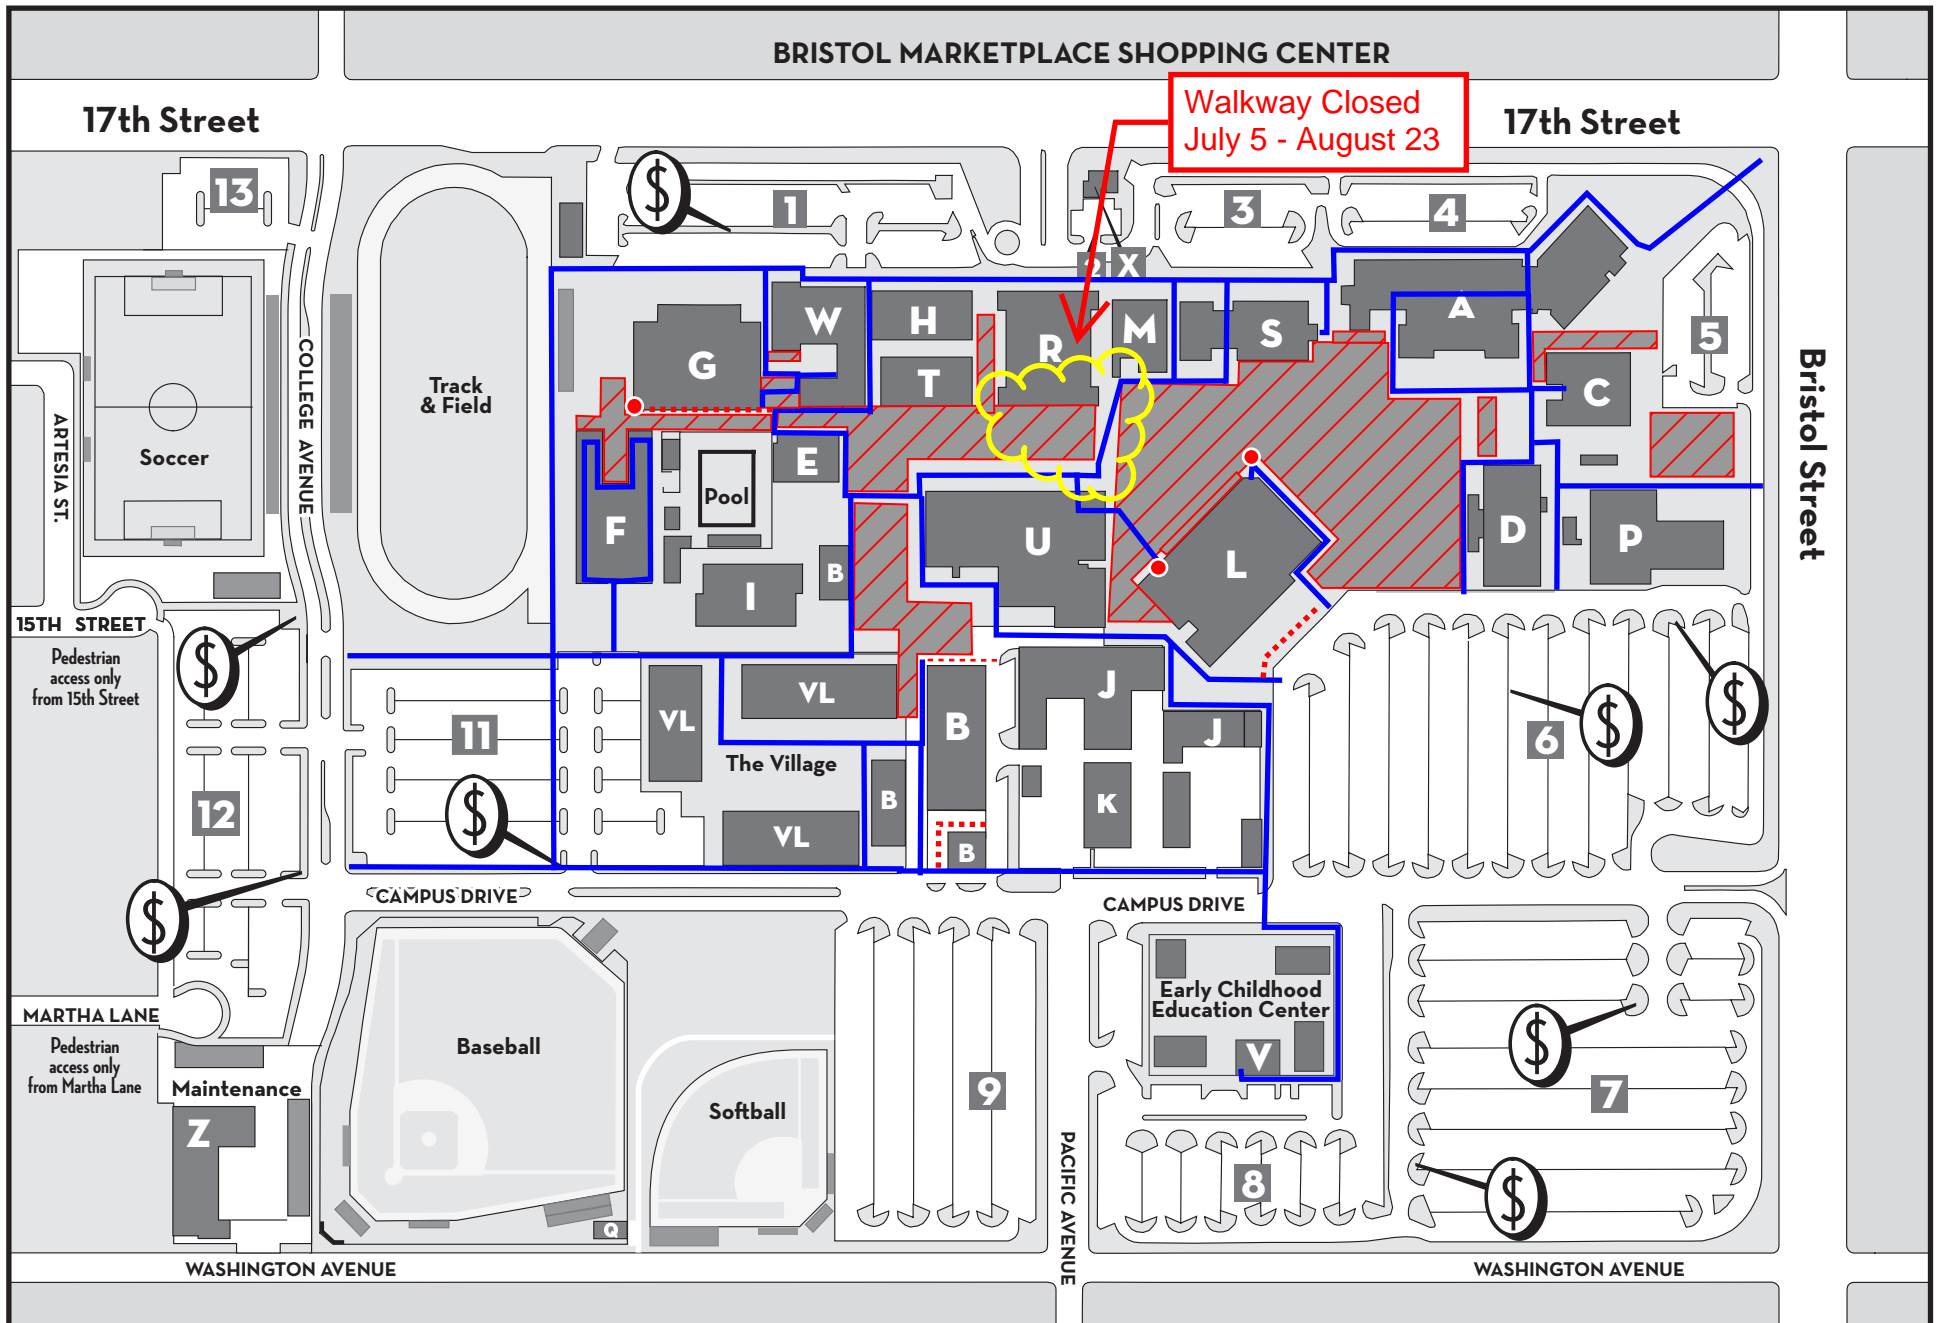

R128 – Please use the door on the east side of Building R for access

By conducting work during the intersession, access will be increased at the west side of campus and lessen noise impacts during the start of the Fall Semester on 08/28/17.
