Regular and Substantive Interaction (RSI)

RSI is a Title 5 Requirement. Academic Senate standards require courses to meet RSI through faculty-to-student and student-to-student interactions. The following are some examples of how to meet the requirement.

- Discussion Forums
- Course Announcements
- Gradebook Feedback
- Peer Review Assignments
- Small Group Zoom Meetings (Recorded for submission)
- FlipGrid

Distance Education Handbook

The Distance Education Handbook is your guide to understanding SAC's DE Requirements. You can find the handbook through SAC.edu. Details on requirements include the following.

- Distance Education Certification Requirements
- Certification Waiver
- Certification Deferment
- Regular and Substantive Interaction

Beginning of the Semester List

- Student Course Access: Students will not see or access your course until the first day of class.
 - If a student just registered, it may take up to 4 hours for them to access your course.
- Cross Listing Course: You should only cross-list BEFORE students do any work.
- Importing Course Content: From your course homepage, select Settings on the bottom left and then select Import Course Content.
- DSPS Accommodations
 - Quizzes: Select Moderate Quiz to provide extra time or an attempt for a student.
 - Hearing Impaired: Contact DSPS if an ASL interpreter is needed and remember to turn on closed captioning on Zoom.
