

VALUING DIVERSITY

2nd Annual Early Childhood Conference

Culturally Responsive Teaching is the idea that teachers and schools recognize that cultural diversity is an asset not a liability.

Participants will learn new strategies for enriching and improving curriculum, environment, and interactions.

Saturday, April 29th, 8:00am - 1:00pm

Santa Ana College

Department of Child Development and Education Studies

Child Development Building, V-Building

Conference Includes:

Certificate of Professional Development
Light Breakfast, Three 1-Hour Workshops,
& a Keynote Speaker with Lunch

To Register: <http://bit.ly/2lolf0a>

$20 Early Registration (before Friday, March 31st)

$25 Registration (before Friday, April 14th)

*OCAEYC Members will receive a
$5 discount during early registration*

