Examples of various technologies used by four academic Divisions

Business Division:

Turbo Tax
QuickBooks
Microsoft Office Suite
Adobe Creative Suite
Unix
Visual Basic

Humanities and Social Science Division:

SARS GRID (software) for the Learning Center to schedule tutoring appointments
My READING Lab (software) for Reading
Connect (software) for Modern Languages

Fine and Performing Arts Division:

3D Animation
3D Modeling
Digital Recording Studio Techniques
Multimedia Storytelling

Sciences, Mathematics, and Health Sciences

Medical Assisting software program for the insurance billing
Nursing – over 50 software programs for case studies, instruction, and licensing exam practice; equipment that is technological such as ventilators, simulators that are mid-fidelity and high-fidelity (the manikins have breath sounds, pulses, blinks, all kinds of things and can be programmed to react to what the student is/is not doing); auscultation center to hear breath sounds and heart sounds; intravenous start virtual start computer to allow the student to practice on virtual patients; intravenous pumps to deliver fluids and medications.