SAC's 2016-2017 BOOK of the Vea

- Seven years ago, in an effort to promote college-wide literacy, interdisciplinary collaboration, and a sense of community, Santa Ana College officially adopted an annual initiative called: The Book-of-the-Year Program, and each year the Teaching Learning Committee and the Nealley Library work collaboratively to encourage college-wide reading of the selected title.
- Departments are encouraged to read, discuss the book, and engage in dialogue. Faculty are asked to weave the book, parts of the book and/or its themes into their curriculum via class discussions, and creative writing, speaking, or visual arts assignments.
- College department leads and faculty who participate are asked to complete and submit a Book-of-the-Year Assessment of Course of Program Activity form before the end of each semester. (Form is posted on the SAC Book-of-the-Year website).
- College events related to the book and its themes are presented during the academic year. Everyone is encouraged to attend!

Santa Ana College Books of the Year:

Please identify yourself:

- 2009 2010 The House on Mango Street, by Sandra Cisneros
- 2010 2011 The Last Lecture, by Randy Pausch
- 2011 2012 Hotel on the Corner of Bitter and Sweet, by Jamie Ford

Classified Staff

SAC

Have you attended Book-of-the-Year-related programs in past years?

- 2012 2013 The Help, by Kathryn Stockett
- 2013 2014 The Tortilla Curtain, by T.C. Boyle
- 2014 2015 I Am Malala, by Malala Yousafzai
- 2015 2016 Spare Parts: Four Undocumented Teenagers, One Ugly Robot, and the Battle for the American Dream, by Joshua Davis

Book of the Year Questionnaire

Administrator

Full time

Faculty

SCE

• 2016 – 2017 Between the World and Me, by Ta-Nehisi Coates

1. Were you aware of our college's SAC Book-of-the-Year initiative? Yes No 2. Do you plan to read this year's selection? Have already read it Yes Nο 3. Have you read past Book-of-the-Year selections? No (If you wish to read them, we have copies at our library) 4. Is it likely you will read future selections? Likely Not Likely 5. Did you know that each year the SAC Book-of-the-Year website is updated with author, theme, and curriculum-related resources, and college programs? Yes No If yes, have you found it useful for yourself or your students? No As scheduled, college events and activities related to this year's selection will be posted onto the Book-of-the-Year website.

Part time

7. Is it likely you will encourage colleagues and students to attend Book-of-the-Year events?	Likely	Unlikely
Suggestions or Comments:
Diagra amail your completed questionnaire as an amail attachment to gargin yell		Thombusoul

If yes, which ones were most memorable to you? (If you wish, refer to the SAC Book-of-the-Year website for past programs).