Non-Tax Filer Income — Parent

- Parents who did not file taxes in 2021 must each submit an IRS Verification of Non-Filing Letter (see instructions on page 2). Parents who are unable to provide the above letter, because they attempted to obtain it but were unable to, or due to not having a SSN or ITIN, would need to certify this below. Parents must also submit a copy of their 2021 W-2 statement(s) to the Financial Aid Office for each source of employment income in 2021 and complete this form showing the sources and amounts of the parent's income earned from work. If the parent was not provided a W-2, he/she must explain why not. If the parents have no income from work, put "None" under Source of Income from Work and "$0" under Total amount for 2020. If your parent has lost or was not provided a W-2, you must either obtain a new copy from your employer or get a Wage Transcript from the IRS.
- Parents must also certify below that he/she has not filed, and is not required to file, a 2021 tax return. If your parent has filed or is required to file a 2021 tax return, you must correct and resubmit your FAFSA instead of completing this form.
