High School Status Discrepancy—(FAFSA Shows Home Schooled)

We have found a discrepancy with the information you submitted on your 2024-2025 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) vs. what resides with Santa Ana College's Admissions & Records office.

The FAFSA asks: "What will your high school completion status be when you begin college in the 2024-2025 school year?" On the FAFSA, you answered that you were home schooled, but on your Admissions and Records application, you listed one of the following: a) High School Diploma or GED, or b) nothing.

In order to correct this, you must mark and do one of the following:

- ☐ If your Admissions and Records information is correct for option a, please correct your FAFSA* to reflect the information on your Admissions and Records application. (There is no need to turn in this form as the corrections will be automatically transmitted to Financial Aid.)
- ☐ If you did not complete high school, please correct your FAFSA* to reflect that information. ** (There is no need to turn in this form as the corrections will be automatically transmitted to Financial Aid.)
- ☐ If you were home schooled and you did not pass the CHSPE, please sign below and upload the form with a proof of high school completion to your self-service portal.
- ☐ If you were home schooled and you passed the California High School Proficiency Exam (CHSPE), please email this form and a copy of your Proficiency Exam to admissions@sac.edu. After Admissions and Records' staff has signed this form, please upload it to your self-service portal.

**If you correct your FAFSA and you are required to turn in additional documents, you must wait one week until we can confirm that the correction came through before uploading any documents.*

\*Please note that if you do not have a high school diploma or the equivalent, and you did not complete at least six (6) units of college degree applicable work prior to July 1, 2012, you are not eligible for Federal Financial Aid. You may still be eligible for the California College Promise Grant.*

I HEREBY CERTIFY that to the best of my knowledge, all of the information provided is true and complete. I understand that false statements or misrepresentations will be cause for denial or repayment of financial aid.
